

"No matter when you buy it you're covered until you turn 65"

Address your clients' life insurance needs during their working years and help protect them against today's realities— all with one product!

WorkLife 65 offers your clients looking for term insurance the "whole package." With it, your clients get the financial protection they need when they need it most—their working years (to age 65)! Plus, at no additional cost, the policy will pay your clients' premiums:

- For one year if they become unemployed.
- Any time up to age 65 if they become disabled.
